

Cristian Oviedo

Currently residing in Los Angeles, CA, Cristian Oviedo is a dancer, choreographer, model, and actor. He was born in Cuscatlán, El Salvador and showed remarkable range and depth at an early age, impressing audiences with his ability to convey complex emotions.

Cristian has won many competitions since 2003 with a variety of dance partners. Most recently he won the 2010 World Latin Cup Champions in both Salsa and Bachata. He has also performed on stage with Tito Puente, Celia Cruz, El Gran Combo, Cachao and many more. In addition to teaching many Hollywood celebrities to dance (including Johnny Depp and Cesar Milan), Cristian has been a guest performer on the TV hit, "Dancing with the Stars."

Showing people how to enjoy salsa and making them better dancers is a goal for this 2009/2010 World Salsa Champion. Cristian will be teaching and performing with Alien Ramirez, his 2010 World Latin Cup Bachata partner.

Alien Ramirez

Alien Ramirez was born in the city of Bayamo, Cuba. Her interest in the art of dancing began at the age of four. Alien started her professional dance training at the EIA (Escuela de Instructores de Arte, Cuba) where she developed her skills in a multitude of dances, such as Afro-Cuban, Latin, Ballet, Jazz, Modern, Flamenco, and Cuban Folklore.

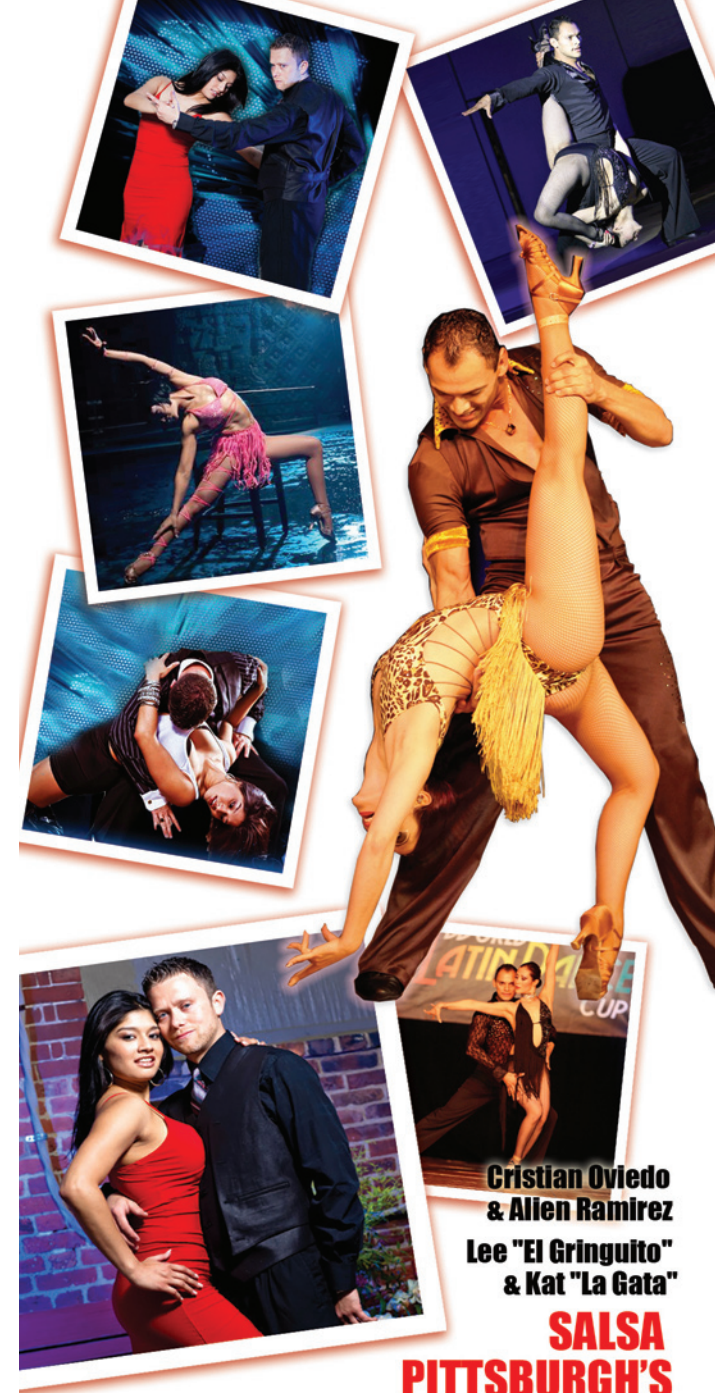

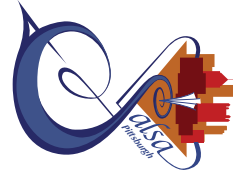

At 19 years of age, she migrated to Miami, FL and partnered with Nelson Gaston Vidarte, with whom she obtained several recognitions and won the 2004 World Salsa Federation Championship in two different divisions. At the age of 21, Alien moved to Los Angeles, CA to further her dance career, teaming up with many top professionals, including Alex Da Silva, Cristian Oviedo, Rodrigo Guzman, Grizzly Hidriago and many others. Alien has garnered eight World Championships in various Latin divisions. Most recently, she won the 2010 World Latin Cup Championship in both Cabaret and Bachata.

Alien has been a dancer for several television shows, and an assistant choreographer for "So You Think You Can Dance." Her dancing style implies flavor, elegance, and sensuality in a very unique and captivating manner.
