

Shaka Gonzalez Brown

Shaka Gonzalez Brown is one of the most sought after individuals in the Salsa world. With five instructional videos, his "Step-By-Step" Salsa series has received widespread praise. Shaka is the director of the ClaveKazi Dance Company, recognized as one of the premier Latin dance companies in the world. An instructor for over 10 years, Shaka has taught and performed in over 20 countries. Shaka is well known for his fluidity, creativity and musicality on the dance floor and he's not hard to find at any event, generally social dancing until closing time. A partner in iMambo.tv, Shaka Brown is also the organizer of the Washington DC Salsa Congress, held in June of every year since 2005.

Joe Figueroa

A professional dancer since his teens, Joe Figueroa has pushed the boundaries of the dance world with his exciting and innovative form of freestyle salsa. Joe began his career as a professional dancer for MTV Studios in New York City. In 2000, this accomplished artist and choreographer transitioned his passion and talent to the art of salsa dancing and quickly became a prominent figure in Philadelphia's salsa scene with his unique body movement and choreography. Joe combined his extensive knowledge of dance and creativity to develop a distinctive style of salsa dancing known as "Philly Style Salsa". This unique style has earned Joe a reputation as one of the hottest salseros on the East Coast.

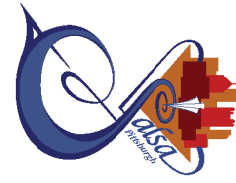

Christy Kam

Christy Kam began her dance career as a classically trained ballerina. In college, Christy discovered her passion for Latin dance and trained under many instructors while dancing with U of Penn's, Onda Latina. Christy has been an active member of U of Penn's ballroom dance team as well as being their performance coordinator, choreographer, and instructor. She and her ballroom partner are former Amateur National Rhythm and "Nine Dance" title holders. With over 10 years of teaching experience, Christy is utilizing her passion and extensive knowledge of body movement and dynamics to inspire others to dance.

Vianette Silva

Born in Puerto Rico, Vianette Silva has grown up immersed in Latin dance. Plena, Bomba, Cumbia, Salsa, and Merengue have been a part of her life for as long as she can remember. As an instructor and performer, Vianette has been a member of Generation N, El Nuevo Dia, and Salsa Heat, the top dance school in South Florida. As pleasant as she is beautiful, Vianette loves to dance all night long, and is recognized internationally for her smile, energy, and presence on and off stage. As a member of Washington, DC based ClaveKazi Dance Company, Vianette has taught and performed throughout the world.
